

Fiddler's Green, When Will We Be Married

When will we be married Molly
When will we be wed
When will we be bedded in the same bed

When will we be married Molly
When will we be wed
When will we be bedded in the same bed

You have your eye on Jimmy, long Jimmy Lee
Have your eye on Jimmy and a fine man he
You have your eye on Jimmy, but you better let him be
'Cause when you go, Molly, oh, you'll be gone with me

When will we be married Molly
When will we be wed
When will we be bedded in the same bed

When will we be married Molly
When will we be wed
When will we be bedded in the same bed

You have your eye on Johnny, thin Jonny Fee
Have your eye on Johnny and a fine man he
You have your eye on Johnny, better let him be
'Cause when you go, Molly, oh, you'll be gone with me

When will we be married Molly
When will we be wed
When will we be bedded in the same bed

When will we be married Molly
When will we be wed
When will we be bedded in the same bed

Made black bow for your head
When will we be married, Molly, when will we be wed
Made a black bow for your bonny head

You have your eye on Paddy, mad Paddy P.
Have your eye on Paddy and a fine man he
You have your eye on Paddy, better let him be
'Cause when you go, Molly, oh, you'll be gone with me

When will we be married Molly
When will we be wed
When will we be bedded in the same bed
