

Fields Of The Nephilim, The Watchman

The Watchman

Innocence is hurting a world speaks out of tune Promise calls, promise falls
what are we to do, with a clouded view
You follow me through

Sadly the tides are changing my world slips out of you Your body falls. My body calls
what are we to do, with a clouded view
You follow me through

My lifes turning pages
I see a promised day
Watchmen never age here
They just sleep in vain Drowning people stare here they dont care to call, so I rebury the pages Kthulhu calls
You'll see, you'll see her
when she starts to form
You'll see, you'll see her
when she starts to call

In the name of Jesus Christ wont you fear my name I've been around since Moses your preacher never came You'll see, you'll see her
when she starts to call
Follow me
You sleep, you sleep
follow me

Its just another day remember I am calling for you
just another day
remember she's calling for you
just another day
Kthulhu, I am calling for you
just another day
An empire has fallen from view
You sleep
You sleep
Follow me
you sleep - you sleep
You cannot follow me
