

Fightstar, Cross Out The Stars

I woke up cold November,
It takes a lot to show my face around here.
I've only myself to blame.

I tried not to lose,
What I tried so hard to show to you.

How long, can I wait here?
I'm all torn, by your words.
I'm broken, yet we're still burning,
Just hold on till the end.

I crossed out all the stars,
To try to show that she was once amongst them.
I've only myself to blame.

I tried not to lose,
But I tried so hard to show to you.

How long, can I wait here?
I'm all torn, by your words.
I'm broken, yet we're still burning,
Just hold on till the end.

It's been a long time,
It's been such a long time.

How long, can I wait here?
I'm all torn, by your words.
I'm broken, yet we're still burning.
Just hold on till the end.
