

Fightstar, Wake Up

If you have the answers to all of my questions,
Why are you her,
Turn around, face me now,
I promise you they'll let you in.

I don't mean to make you so upset,
But the air is so thin and I'm losing sleep.

Blackened and unrested,
Replace your armour to make this stand.

Bring me round to let me down,
Take this for ever so I can sleep quiet,
I'll wait around to let you in,
What has begun.

I don't mean to make you so upset,
But the air is so thin and I'm losing sleep.

I don't mean to make you so upset,
But the air is so thin and I'm losing sleep.

Wake Up.

You laid me down to sleep.
