

Filo and Peri ft. Eric Lumiere, Anthem

Lately I've been feeling the same
I've been losing hope, resisting the pain
It's cold outside, I wish it were clearer
Sometimes, It's just easy to turn around and...
...look in the mirror
Sometimes when I go to sleep
My life spins out in front of me
Like a hurricane, a bottle of wine
Sometimes it's easier to let something else...
...control your life

This is an anthem for the girl that got away
This is an anthem for the world of yesterday
This is an anthem for the rebel of my youth
This is an anthem for risk of loving you
The risk of loving you...
This is an anthem for the girl that got away
This is an anthem for the world of yesterday
This is an anthem for the rebel of my youth
This is an anthem for risk of loving you
The risk of loving you...
