

Finch, A Song For You

Here I am beside myself again
I'm torn apart by words that you have said and all in all, I know we're falling apart
Where did you run to so far away
And here we are to sing you a song
And there you are asleep against the windowpane
Just like always
You said you like to hear the rain sometimes and all I can do is tell you the truth
Oh my eyes will tell you the same
And here we are to sing you a song
And there you are asleep again

And here we are to sing you a song
And there you are asleep again

Grasp our hands together, we feel we are one result (x4)

And here we are to sing you a song
And there you are asleep again (x3)

Grasp our hands together, we feel we are one result
