

Finechina, The Patient

Weak souls, take heart. I know you've fallen apart.
Ambition's left its mark, I know you've fallen apart.
Do you know about, the patient?
Oh I doubt you really even care to know.
You do not really care to know. You do not really care to know.
Well listen to a song about.
I won't let you forget.
We will never forget.
