

Finger Eleven, Sing Along (Grant Lee Buffalo Cover)

Halleluhoodwink.
A hounds' life is for me.
Everything but the kitchen sink.
He built it just for me.
Hallelu, you're the girl,
That leads me to the warmth.
I'd build you a river,
But I'm still not through with this ark.

Man built a furnace,
A Mercedes Benz.
Man built the cities of Kansas & Berlin.
Man slew the bison,
And he built a thieves road.
That pass over Tel Aviv-Jaffa,
And lead to the Mother Lode.
Mother Lode.

Halleluhoodwink.
A fool's life is for me.
A steppin' off a parapet,
With a dog nippin' my knee.
Hallelu'yer the thing,
That leads straight through the wall.
I'd build you a hammer,
With a thick, thick, thick head and long claws.

Man built a forest,
Out of ocean and earth.
Man built the prisons of Joliet,
San Quentin & Leavenworth.
And this man in the market,
For Mohammed Ali,
Evel Knievel & the legacy of John Wayne...
Gacy, Gacy.

But I can't sing along (Marry my body girl).
But I can't sing along.
Sing along it all, no.
But I can't sing along [Marry my body girl].
But I can't sing along.
Sing along, sing along.

But I can't sing along (Marry my body girl).
But I can't sing along.
Sing it all, no.
But I can't sing along [Marry my body girl].
But I can't sing along.
Sing along, sing along.
