

Fingertips, Lost In My Sleep

As you wear me in you wear me out and as I get drunk
I scream out loud
Where are you my love?
my shadow's alone
it keeps burning letters starts loosing control...

and then I fell asleep and i float inside of you and it's just another dream but it's never true and as i walked to nowhere i swam in depression

i really loved you this is my last stupid confession and as i faint inside my soul i feel i'm getting cold oh,wake me,say it say you'll stay here and then i wake in a nightmare oh,oh i'm lost in my sleep and i'm on my own

and i do have fear...
