Finn Brothers, Anything Can Happen

Day
Has begun
And I stumble
To the front
There's no
Real control
Of a random
Event

And I will take my chances 'Cos anything can happen I don't believe it's over 'Cos anything can happen

I could never Give it up I could never relent And I can't Wait to see What will happen To me next

I will take my chances 'Cos anything can happen I don't believe it's over 'Cos anything can happen

It doesn't matter
What we did wrong
Makes no difference
To me
I see the light in your eyes
And you're dancing free

And I'm coming down today To gather in the pieces Give in to the mystery

And I will take my chances 'Cos anything can happen Don't believe it's over 'Cos anything can happen

One day, I Someday, I

Anything can happen Yeah, anything can happen

I will make it shine
I will make it rain sometime
