

FINNEAS, I Don't Miss You At All

i swear i don't miss you at all
and I barely still remember who's in the pictures on my wall cause , no I can't recall your scent
jasmine tuberose and lily or your silly French accent all but forgotten
about those eyes
the shade of green that if he'd seen would make F. Scott Fitzgerald cry

but I won't
break down at 2 am and call cause I don't
miss you at all

and I am sleeping fine I don't mean to boast but I only dream about you once or twice a night at most and it feels so good eating alone
I don't get distracted by your smile and miss the green lights driving home no sign of stopping
the house isn't far
but I think our song is comin' on and I wanna crash the car

but I won't
make the mistake again and fall so I say i don't
miss you at all
and someday I won't
miss you at all
