

Fiona Apple, Container (The Affair soundtrack)

I was screaming
Into the canyon
At the moment
Of my death
Echo I created was
Lasted my breath
My voice made an avalanche
Bury the man I've never know
And when he died
His widow's bride met your daddy
And they made

I have one thing to do that's
Be the way that I am
Sink back to the oceans
I have one thing to do that's
Be the way that I am
Sink back to the oceans
I have one thing to do that's
Be the way that I am
Sink back to the oceans
Sink back to the oceans
Sink back to the oceans
Sink back to the oceans
