

Firebird, Cross The Line

That's right, yeah, just sign your life away
For the fool's parade
Hard times, yeah, they put you here today
In the sad charade
And you'll find instead you'll always pay
For the serenade

And I'm just not that kind
Believe me

When the time has come
And the deal's been done
And the fight is over (?)
Won't be feeling quite so fine

Well they it's true if you only knew
Where it all was going
Maybe you would change your mind
But you crossed that line

Sad man, yeah, he's feeling better now
??? he's gonna tell you how
When's it time to go

??? just sits and takes a vow
Course it's all for show

You know I'm not that kind
Believe me

When the time has come
And the deal's been done
Won't be feeling quite so fine

Well they it's true if you only knew
Where it all was going
Maybe you would change your mind
But you crossed that line

Yeah, you crossed that line
