

Firebird, Lonely And Sober

See them passing by The ???
Never asking why
It all gets left unsaid

Well, I know now it's over
I'm lonely and sober

Often cross that line
You thought that you were safe
No one's feeling can
??? you'll take the blame

Well, I know now it's over
I'm lonely and sober

I would give up all my time
Each thing I own (?)
Couldn't stand the strain ???
I'm trying, I am

I would give up all my time
Each thing I own
Couldn't stand the strain and ???
I'm trying, I am
