Firebird, Lonely And Sober

See them passing by The ??? Never asking why It all gets left unsaid

Well, I know now it's over I'm lonely and sober

Often cross that line You thought that you were safe No one's feeling can ??? you'll take the blame

Well, I know now it's over I'm lonely and sober

I would give up all my time Each thing I own (?) Couldn't stand the strain ??? I'm trying, I am

I would give up all my time Each thing I own Couldn't stand the strain and ??? I'm trying, I am
