

Firebird, Sinner Takes All

I heard it said when I was born
Living won't be easy for long
By the time, yeah, that I was grown
Realise what they have done wrong

If you have the time
Maybe soon you'll obey
Yeah, right now

When you lose your mind
Remember soon you'll
Pay their way

If I was dead they wouldn't mourn
Still I'm here and wishing you would go
'Cause often times, yeah, that I was tired
Of all the foolish curses you'd throw

If you have the time
Maybe soon you'll obey
Yeah, right now

When you lose your mind
Remember soon you'll
Pay their way

This ain't the brightest day I've seen before
We're in a sorry state, the sinner takes all

This ain't the brightest day I've seen before
We're in a sorry state, the sinner takes all

This ain't the brightest day, not like before
We're in a sorry state, the sinner takes all
