

Firebird, Zoltana

Every other night
Keeping out of sight
'Cause I can't stay here
I'm moving here

You've been lying to yourself
??? ???
So before there's nothing left
Move out again

It's just a shame
Move on again
Take the blame

Didn't think I could
Make it understood
Couldn't face the truth
I was in the wrong

I was lying to myself
Knew I wouldn't ???
So I'm asking for your help
Move on again

And take the blame
Move on again
And feel the shame

You've been lying to yourself
Knew you wouldn't ???
So I'm asking for your help
Feeling all this shame

And before there's nothing left
Move on again
And take the blame
Now move on again
Don't feel the shame
