Fireside, Ambulance

This is not what you love me for Will give you a present actually please you Whatever will actually please you Its funny and sad to look at you these days When nothing really matters And were doing our best i guess

I just wanted to know Does anybody own you No, i got to pay And end up broke and worn out Youll have to do better than that