Firewind, Fire

In the aftermath, everything will clear But the ones who stand, have no fear Can you feel the fire, that burns inside Can't live without it, it's something I can't deny

Living my life in fire, burning in sweet desire Want to get higher and higher, I don't mind the consequences Living my life in fire, burning in sweet desire Want to get higher and higher, I want to live forevermore

Burning fire, in my soul, flames grow higher More and more

We're running out of time, is there an answer Only the fire, remains, forever it burns My desire, it burns inside of me I can't live without it, it's something I just can't hide
