

Firewind, I Will Fight Alone

Battles rage thought Hamlets an Emipres
Heros die,legends are born
The righteous pray all trthough the eons
Still the evil unsheathes the sword

God of time keeps trakc of all the things
Gathers in the souls of the dead
A champion born, knight reincarnate
I have been chosen for war

Fear, Death,Blood,Flesh - My Glory day is here
Over lords, Raging Hoards - The Spoils of war are near

I Will Fight Alone
Stand and face an army of one
I Will Fight Alone
Until I'm overrun

Answer the cries of innocent children
Bury deep the Overlords
The banner hails avenging Warrior
Savior of a stricken world

Hear the seer's foretell my - lonely demise
Reap the sorcerers angered - Am still alive

I Will Fight Alone
Stand and face an army of one
I Will Fight Alone
Until I'm overrun
