

Firewind, Into The Fire

-Solo-

Here we are again
Marchers of the revolution
I can't turn up the human
Nothing left to burn
Witnessing the prosecution
Killing ourselves

Save me
Don't let them take
My life from me
Help me
My fears become reality

Into the fire
No need to bleed for me
Into the fire
My tears are black
Set me free

Hellfire burns once again
Ancient this constitution
The day of reckoning
Marching to the end
To the final execution
This blackened state
There's no return

Save me
Don't let them take
My life from me
Help me
Eternal grief is what I feel

Into the fire
No need to bleed for me
Into the fire
My tears are black
Set me free

-Solos-

Save me
Don't let them take
My life from me
Help me
Eternal grief is what I feel
Oh

Into the fire
No need to bleed for me
Into the fire
My tears are black
Oh, set me free

Into the fire
No need to bleed for me
Into the fire
My tears are black
So set me free
