

Firewind, The Silent Code

Break me
Cut me in two
Pain is carved in deeper
But I will get through
The insanity
I heard it all before
Picking up the pieces
That I spilled over you

We just obey
The silent code
I'm sick and tired
We're floating in the endless cloud

And I'll cry for you
And I'll smile for you
I can do what you want
I can be who you want me to be
Wont you set me free?

Hate me
I'm sick of it all
One can't make the difference
Because it's not in my control
Steer me
Can't do a thing
I follow your direction and I will obey the code

We just obey
The silent code
I'm sick and tired
In an endless love

And I'll cry for you
And I'll smile for you
I can do what you want
I can be who you want me to be
Won't you set me free?

(Instrumental)

And I'll cry for you
And I'll smile for you
I can do what you want
I can be who you want me to be
Do what you want

And I'll cry for you
(Cry for you)
And I'll smile for you
I can compromise
But you must realize
That one day I will break free
