

Fisher, All Is Fair

All is fair in love,
Love's a crazy game,
Two people vow to stay
In love as one they say.
But all is changed with time,
The fusion none can see,
The road to leave behind,
Ahead lies mystery.

But all is fair in love,
I had to go away.
A writer takes his pen to write the words again
That all in love is fair.

All the fates are chance,
It's either good or bad.
I tossed my coin to see,
In love with me you'd stay,
But all in war is so cold,
You either win or lose,
And all is put away.
The losing side are played.

But all is fair in love,
I should have never left your side.
A writer takes his pen to write the words again
That all in love is fair.
A writer takes his pen to write the words again
That all in love is fair.
