

Fitzgerald Patrik, Island Of Lost Souls

I'm like an island,
i'm like a lost soul;
cut off from the rest of the world.
Walking the same corridors,
stalking the same cold shining floors;
in search of the place i will stay.
I'm like an island,
i'm like a lost soul;
cut off from the rest of the world.....
island of lost souls.
Placed on the same staircases,
faced with the same choice of steps
and paces;
in search of the place i will stay;
island of lost souls.
island of lost souls.
island of lost souls.
