

Fitzgerald Patrik, Working Hu-Man's Casino

I'm going to take myself a holiday
The things I say no longer fit together
I'm going to take myself a holiday
The things I think
No longer fit
With people's ways of living
Life - living
Life - living
I'm going to take myself a holiday
At the working hu-man's casino
Where the croupiers
Are dressed as nurses
And play games with your skin
Throw down your chips
But you will never win
In.In.In.
The working hu-man's casino
The working hu-man's casino
The working hu-man's casino
The working hu-man's casino