

Five O'Clock Heroes, Speak Your Language

I feel the lights down low
I feel the lights down low
Everyone seems to know

I feel the lights down low
I feel the lights down low
Everyone seems to know

And then I call you up and ask you how your day has been Your voice interrupts my mind and what state it's in

And I owe it to myself
Just to leave you ohh cos im in love with someone else and i dont need you, and I dont need you

I feel the lights down low
I feel the lights down low
Everyone seems to know

I feel the lights down low
I feel the lights down low
Everyone seems to know

I stay late at work for the fear of coming home to you
There is something new

Oh a lecture I dont need if Im a sinner
I am careless and I am [?]
And I fear you, yes I fear you

I feel the lights down low
I feel the lights down low
Everyone seems to know
