

FIZZ (oddeodde), You, Me, Lonely

(You me Lonely)

this is the way that I exist
Having you holding me like this
Like this

This is so comfortable it hurts
Oh but I guess it could be worse
So much worse

If it was what it was
It is what it is
It won't ever be what I want it to be

But I'd be lying if I, Told you
I'm not dying inside

I love you
I need to
What am I
Without you?

Facing away from me in bed
Counting the grey hairs on your head
And I got scared

Think of a joke without your laugh
Think of the kids we'll never have That's so sad

If it was what it was
It is what it is
It won't ever be what I want it to be

But I'd be lying if I, Told you
I'm not dying inside

I love you
I need to
What am I
Without you?

(You me
Lonely)
