

Flapjack, Crook

Your eyes are bigger than your belly, Insanity in form of chastity
You keep your chin up as you act lika hog,
You want My daddy to be your dog, You want my sister to be your whore,
You want her only child to be your toy,
Takin' care of your own as you see on your telly 'cuz you eyes are much bigger than you belly.
Crook, Crook (you're nothing but a ...)
You want to live your life lika king With milk & honey from summer to spring.
You want my mother to be your slave,
So how dare you fuckin' tell me That you're brave
