

Flatcat, Beautiful In Venice

FLATCAT

BEAUTIFUL IN VENICE

I'm my old self again

Havent felt this good

For quite some time

I'm pretty sure

That we wont have a fight tonight

Will it last, there's one way to find out

Fact is your my main-concern

We will see when you return!

You're beautiful in Venice!

I can see you in your hotelroom,

dreaming bout our honeymoon yeah

You're beautiful in venice!

And I'm still here just wondering

Why I can't stand those long goodbyes

I can hear your voice somewhere

It's calling me "your little boy"

There's nothing that compares to it

I hope

I'm right just for once

Never thought I'd say this

Love is never what it seems

Only we know what it means!

Little mermaid,

don't dare to leave me anymore

I'm a slave for you

Just don't mistreat me

For the first time,

I feel like there's something

In my heart that won't go away that easy

You're beautiful in Venice!

I can see you in your hotelroom,

dreaming bout our honeymoon yeah

You're beautiful in venice!

And I'm still here just wondering

Why I can't stand those long goodbyes
