

Flatfoot 56, We Have Been Called

There is a battle waging on
And there's no good men to be found
Where are the people who will stand for what is right?

Why has holiness decreased?
Why has purity just ceased?
Where are the people who will stand up and fight?

I know the plans you have for me
You knew them even the calvary
You paid the price and then you died
You were the only sacrifice

Cause we have been called
To let the light out
And we have been called
To share the truth
We have been called
To be ambassadors for you
(repeat)

The battle lines have just been drawn
We need to stand against the wrong
Our mission is to share the word
Why are we so afraid
To share about the price He paid?

We have been called
To let the light out
We have been called
To share the truth
We have been called
To be ambassadors for you
(repeat)

We have been called
We have been called

We have been called
To let the light out
We have been called
To share the truth
We have been called
To be ambassadors for you
(repeat)

We have been called
We have been called
We have been called
