

Flexa Lyndo, Grand Jumble Army

We live in great harmony with belief in ourselves
We stand for great harmony with belief in ourselves
This life is pretty dangerous, we all need a harder shell
Now for this harmony we all trust in ourselves

Beware if you loose the faith, if you're left on the shelf
Beware if you lose the faith, if you remain faceless
It appears on our uniforms :"No money, no cash, no change"
In Europe, in 2003, we do know that war kills
We belong to Grand Jumble Army and we all trust in ourselves

We belong to Grand Jumble Army and we all trust in ourselves
In Europe, in 2003, we do know that war kills
