

Flight Of The Conchords, Bus Driver's Song

Speaking "G'day, my name's Tony. On behalf of myself and the coachline I'd like to thank y

Sings The town hall

Note the mosaic wall

Well, there are 5,600 tiles on that wall

I know, I counted them all

The local school, the local swimming pool,

Which was opened by the Governor General,

Back in 1952

Where I was caught with a friend aged 11, sniffing tractor fuel

We thought we were pretty cool, breaking them changing shed rules

But do you see up there?

The banner hanging in the air?

The Presbyterian Fair

Well, I never go, there's too many Presbyterians there

But if you're interested, the fair's in the third weekend of August every year

But don't bother entering the raffle,

It's always won by some kid of the Mayor

Do you hear that sound?

The town clock, heard from anywhere in town,

Until 1960, it was a little place in Norway

We bought it for a hundred pounds

Rumor has it they sold it cheap because the chimes were too loud

But every time I hear that sound it makes me so proud

Look to your left, what a beautiful sight,

It's Paula, Paula Thompson, nee Paula Wright.

Look at her hair, it's still gorgeous, even now.

Flowing like the Womahonga River,

Which incidently, is to your right.

And it's the largest, in the area

In terms of volume.

Everybody, look at Paula, look at Paula Thompson

I always thought I'd marry Paula

But some things just don't work out that way

Well, that's the most important thing you'll learn on the tour today

That, and the fact there'll be a toilet break

At the information center near the manmade lake

Speaking "Yeah, I'll just ask you one favor, if you do see Paula in town later on that you do

Singing

Paula Thompson, born in '54

To a family of four

To the family next door

Take me back next door

Paula Thompson, nee Paula Wright.

That's her old house, number 39

Number 41 was mine

If this old coach could go back in time

I'd drive to 1979

Take me back...

Take me back, take me back

(Take, take, take, take me back)

Take me back, take me back

(Take, take, take, take me back)

Take me back, take me back, take me back, take me back, take me back, take me back...

Speaking "Yeah, sorry about that. I always get a little bit emotional on the corner of Rutherford
