

FlipBoy, The Story Of My Life

(Verse 1)

The story of my life starts in 1996,
When I was still a lil tike enjoyin my life,
1st day of school, I wanted to act cool,
So I started a fight but it didn't go quite right,
I wanted attention cuz I never got it down,
That why my cousins always notice my face with a frown,
I had great parents with a great marriage,
Meaning, that they would never hit me or hurt my feelings,
People throwing theyre life away makes me throw up,
That priest called me son cuz that mothafucka watched me grow up,
I was a child filled with happiness and joy,
Anger was hidden deep down, never could be found,
I fell in love with the sound of rap it was bound
A genre I could relate to,
Also, I had a great childhood, I would go back and yes i would
First verse from '91 to year '02.

(Chorus x2)

I wish I could start my life from scratch,
Change everything i've done in the past,
I'd do it really fast,
I'd be the last with a laugh,
And be reborn again cuz
I'm only a human in the words of my rap!

(Verse 2)

Now it's the teenage years, I gotta face my fears,
Highschool was cool, but the older faggets were cruel,
I had to make a name myself,
Which was fucking hard cuz I was a man who couldnt' figure out himself,
I was like a broken toy left on the first shelf,
But I dealt with all the problems that came in and left,
In fact, if i saw something violent, I would re-enact,
I would react violently with someone intact,
I've already broke a few hearts,
Tore someone's life apart,
And I regret my actions cuz also my life is hard,
Those were the years also when I first took drugs,
Hanged out with a few thugs who showed me some love,
Not taking shit from no one and keeping myself calm,
Understanding the people who surround me and showing any harm,
I wish I could go back cuz i'm so tired of this shit
Seconde verse from '01 to year '06.

(Chorus x2)

I wish I could start my life from scratch,
Change everything i've done in the past,
I'd do it really fast,
I'd be the last with a laugh,
And be reborn again cuz
I'm only a human in the words of my rap!

(Verse 3)

I could take a knife and commit suicide,
But I love life and I dont wanna die,
I wanna see my lil bro grow up to be a soldjah
The story of my life is something I told ya,
If I could go back in the past,
I wish I could start from scratch,
I would erase everything bad and add a few things,
Make the girl of my dreams falls in love with me,
I would make my family solve our money problems,

Heal every wound that has left my life scarred,
Make it and less hard, and make it more easy,
It's easy talking shit but it's hard livin it,
Wish for every one i've lost to come back to life,
And spend another night together reunite
A family who doesn't fight, and gets along right,
I deal with the same problems everyday daily
So what makes you any more different than me?

(Chorus x2)

I wish I could start my life from scratch,
Change everything i've done in the past,
I'd do it really fast,
I'd be the last with a laugh,
And be reborn again cuz
I'm only a human in the words of my rap!
