

Floetry, My Apology

Karma usually comes wearing a strangers light its easier to deal with that way but now its you Ive hurt you, disrespected you its nowhere to hide, no turning back no rearrangement, only what lies ahead, and youre so heaven sent

[Chorus]

I know youre feeling hurt because of what I did to you if its blame Ill take it baby, we will make it thru cuz I love you (I love you) I love you (think about it baby)

Im sorry for giving you the cold shoulder (never been this wrong before, never stood my ground and breathed it in before) Lord, all I wanted to do is hold ya (never felt so brave and so afraid before, never faced alone and felt a peace before)
With tears in my eyes I come to you sincerely (accepting this space Im in, growing outta the phase where I just wanna win)
You act as though you dont even hear me (look at me, baby, look at me)

[Repeat chorus]

[Spoken by Natalie:]

Growth,
I released my grief
it was a heavy load survived this sleep and now Im letting go waking up and living up to what I had proposed a woman now,
I loved the girl I used to be every step she took was reaching out to me every breath is blessed, responsibility
I made it baby

I cant control your feelings I cant take back what Ive done (with my hand on my heart) Im coming to you sincerely if ya hear me (I know you)

[repeat chorus twice]

Baby Im sorry...

think about it
we know better but um, love has no expectations thats why I dont expect you to do anything
think about it
this is for me and Im offering this to you to free myself cuz I know what I have to do this is my apology

think about it, babe
