

Flotsam And Jetsam, Fuckers

Righteous fks
You think you are on top of the world
The little people spit down on you
You'll feel trying to look yourself in the eyes

Bleed you fkers bleed
Die you fkers die
I'll cut all your fkin throats
So brace your fkin self

Go right ahead you worthless gem, enjoy the laugh
I hope you choke on yourself in the end
You'll never get up on me
I won't subscribe
And I'll recognize

How fked up you really are
The way you love to be
Self-centered selfish piece of shit
Another morning shows and nothing changes

You're death in everyone's eyes,
You'd be lucky to die
You fked up everyone's life,
That comes as no surprise
You have to be taken out,
Instead you stay alive

You thrive on breaking their lives
Your feel tries to poke me in the eyes

Entertaining yourself
Makes you closer to hell

You're death in everyone's eyes,
You'd be lucky to die
You fked up everyone's life,
That comes as no surprise, no surprise
You're death in everyone's eyes
You fked up everyone's life
You have to be taken out,
Instead you stay alive

Worthless, useless, no good gimp
Another faceless, vileless pile
You're miserable, despicable, dismal, lovable, intolerable
And you don't give a shit
I despise, you despise, you recognize, gouge your eyes
Ah fk you
Devil eyes, two lies in her eyes, visualize parasites,
A blacker demise

You're still a righteous fk
Now down at the bottom of the world
Looking at everyone spit down on you
And there's nothing you can fkin do

You're death in everyone's eyes,
You'd be lucky to die
You fked up everyone's lives,
That comes as no surprise, no surprise
You're death in everyone's eyes
You fked up everyone's lives
Make no mistakes about it

This time you're dead
