

Flunk, Play

Everyone, every singer and every song
Everyone, every lover whose love has gone
It's a soothing delight
And it's moving my life
Everyone, every singer and every song
Everyone, every begger and every bum
Everyone, every lover whose love has gone
So crawl, crawl, yeah, beautiful
Everybody knows that life can be wonderful
It's a soothing delight
And it's moving my life
Everyone, every sinner and every saint
Everything, every picture and lick of paint
Every day, every sunrise and starry night
So crawl, crawl, yeah, beautiful
Everybody knows that life can be wonderful
It's a soothing delight
