

Fly To The Sky, Im Gonna

Feel my breath and my heart

This night is passing but this is a time where I dont want to easily let you go

Will you hold me tight so that you can feel me more?

I want to give only to you, my careful heart

*Even if Im not by my side all the time,

I always want to stay inside of you who is so beautiful

I will stay in a place where I can give you everything

Even your littlest movements~

(oh baby I really want you bad, you're the best that I've ever had)

Lean against me and put everything in me

(I love the things that you do for me, girl you're so freaky)

I will tell you, I will promise you, till the end I will watch over you

*Even if Im not by my side all the time,

I always want to stay inside of you who is so beautiful

I will stay in a place where I can give you everything (2x)

Dont be lonesome anymore, look at me, come to me

I am here, dont ever leave again, dont leave me alone

*Even if Im not by my side all the time,

I always want to stay inside of you who is so beautiful

I will stay in a place where I can give you everything (2x)
