

Fly To The Sky, My Neverending Story

With various reasons my friends try to comfort me, and they all say that I did well.

Suspiciously they ask about your responsibility and only say of your faults.

Letting you go, letting you go, It's me and myself
(Rap)

Actually, I saw you rollin' in your ex's SUV smiling with a man as if you was meant to be Naturally, I wouldn't do this but uh
Forgive me if I studder I hope you get a nasty STD
That's how much I hate you with another man
Don't you think my love is better than the man you're with It's a mystery
I don't understand you like
I study physics and chemistry
Even if our story ends like this,
My heart is left still looking for you.

(First page) I first met you

(Page two) I fell in love

(Page three) Our story is My neverending story

(Page five) I can't forget you

(Page six) My sad story is my never neverending story

(Even though I said that today I'd start everything over)

I try to change the little things around me but

At the end of the day everything becomes silent and the reality that I'm alone covers me and the thing that I think about, the thing that I think about It's you and your face

(Rap)

Girl you got me hooked cause I'm dying without you and everytime I'm out girl I'm thinking about you

I've tried real hard to get you off my mind

But I still think about you all the time

How you gonna act chill when you know you was wrong and when you out having fun girl I'm sitting at home

And now I know how you are always sleeping around

It's all good baby girl, cause I'm standing my ground (what)

For the last time, I saw in your two eyes tears and

I stopped and couldn't say anything.

(First page) I first met you

(Page two) I fell in love

(Page three) Our story is My neverending story

(Page five) I can't forget you

(Page six) My sad story is my never neverending story

Oh, you're not going to know of my heart that had to let you go

Our story has become a wreck and (for forever) I don't think it can be forgotten

(First page) (Page two) (Page three)

Our story is My neverending story

Never neverending story

(Even though I said that today I'd start everything over)

Without you I don't think it'll end

(Page six) My sad story is My never neverending story
