Sleepin around with other n*ggas when you said they just friends
While I was out on the streets tryin to make us some cash

You make me sick, you thought you'd get away with yo games
You made me think that you was right and I was always to blame
And now I know that I made a wrong choice at start
Cause all I wanted was yo lovin but you broke my heart

That sh*t don't get by me cause I be wiser see
I was blind at first but now I see it through
All you wanted was my money, not my love for you
I bought you Gucci links, Versace gear, and so more
But most of all I gave you lovin, but you walked out the door
I ain't stressin over sh*t, it's all good for me
Should've known you was a ho the way you got on yo knees (WHAT)
