While I was out on the streets tryin to make us some cash

You make me sick, you thought you'd get away with yo games

You made me think that you was right and I was always to blame

And now I know that I made a wrong choice at start

Cause all I wanted was yo lovin but you broke my heart

All you wanted was my money, not my love for you

Should've known you was a ho the way you got on yo knees (WHAT)
