

Flybanger, Demon Away

Walked into a bad dream, the other day
Saw me standing helpless, same damn place
Said I'd stay away
I just cant believe that, these old vices got me again
Got me again, when will it end

Inside I just cant ignore, Things that make me unsafe
Everytime I lose it all guilt spills from within Im just a demon away, from these fears
A demon away from being, cuz im done, with it, with him

Wake up with a fever, seems so strange tired of all these feelings, that stare at me yeah im so ashamed
I just cant believe that, I got in this web again
The more i bend, my discipline

Inside I just cant ignore, Things put me in this state
Everytime I lose it all guilt spills from within
Im just a demon away, from these fears
A demon away, from being in control
A demon away cause all this rage is more than i can take

Can I live through this cycle alone
Keeping myself clear of what I've become Changing all the panic, believing whats failed Destruct, Never!

Im just a demon away, from these fears
A demon away, from being in control
A demon away, cause all this rage is more than i can take
A demon away, from being, cause im done, yeah I'm done
Just a demon away, from changing everything
Yeah I'm a demon away, from it all
