

Flyleaf, Breathe Today (Demo Version)

You try your hardest to perfect your explanations,
You lie until they've run out of questions.

You can only move as fast as who's in front of you.
And if you assume just like them, what good will it do?
So find out for yourself, so your ignorance will stop bleeding through.

Only one thing,
Big enough to fill the void that's inside of you.
It's just a breath away,
You can breathe, ooh, today.

So many lies swarming around you,
You're suffocating!
The empty space in you steals your breath,
You're suffocating!

Logic forces me to believe in this and I have learned to see.
I can only say what I've seen and heard, and only you can choose.
And every choice you make will affect you, search your own self.
You can breathe, ooh, today.

So many lies swarming around you,
You're suffocating!
The empty space in you steals your breath,
You're suffocating!

Big enough to fill the void that's inside of you,
It's just a breath away...

So many lies swarming around you,
You're suffocating!
The empty space in you steals your breath,
You're suffocating!

You can breathe, ooh, today.
Breathe today...
