

Fold Zandura, Like Rubies

turn sweet as salt, we burn with lightning fury in sudden squall, we drift in solitary lines I'll follow you through walls of sleepless currents the way that towers over us betrays tomorrow tell me again, tell me again how it turns out after the sun and the stars stop burning after the wars will the world keep revolving after the storms will we come out shining like rubies, like rubies

I'll stay with you until the story's over till winter blooms into summer and we drown in wordless beauty tell me again, tell me again how it goes down hold me again, hold me again, pull me closer
