

Fold Zandura, Never

The golden sun
The silver rain
I wanted to believe
In guiding lights
In wheels of fate
And now it's all so clear

Your haunted eyes
Now far away
Are saying nothing new
I fooled myself so perfectly
And now I know that you
Never loved me

The stars have lied
You and I were never meant
To be

You promised me
I don't know why
You'd steal me earth and sky
For solid days you wept
Despite knowing all this time
You never loved me

The stars have lied
You and I were never meant to be
The planets spin and slowly dim
Then fall into the sea
