Folk Implosion, Someone You Love

You gave me something I need to leave alone
You gave me all I could want to turn my heart to stone

Ooo..
I don't want to be someone you love

I save you all I could find to find myself with you
Couldn't see you never believed, you never listened to me,
You never told me the truth

Ooo..
I don't want to be someone you love
Ooo..
I'd be happy without you
Dropping doubts from the clouds up above
