

Foo Fighters, Hearing Voices

Utwór 'Hearing Voices' z albumu 'But Here We Are' od Foo Fighters (premiera 2 czerwca 2023r.)

I think I spoke too soon
It's time to clear the air
It's quiet in my room
The silence is unfair

I've been hearing voices
None of them are you
I've been hearing voices
None of them are you

Late at night, I tell myself
Nothing this good could last forever

No one cries like you
No one cries like you
I've been hearing voices
I've been hearing voices now
I've been hearing voices, none of them are you
None of them are you
None of them are you
None of them are you

I've seen you in the moon
I wish that you were here
You promised me your word
A whisper in my ear

Every night, I tell myself
Nothing like you could last forever

No one cries like you
No one cries like you
No one lies like you
No one lies like you
I've been hearing voices
I've been hearing voices now
I've been hearing voices, none of them are you
None of them are you
None of them are you
None of them are you

Speak to me, my love
Speak to me, my love
I've been hearing voices
None of them are you
I've been hearing voices
None of them are you

Speak to me, my love
Speak to me, my love
