

Foo Fighters, Let It Die

A heart of gold but it lost its pride
Beautiful veins and bloodshot eyes
I've seen your face in another light
Why'd you have to go and let it die

Why'd you have to go and let it die
Why'd you have to go and let it die
In too deep and out of time
Why'd you have to go and let it die

A simple man and his blushing bride
(Why'd you have to go and let it die)
Intravenous, intertwined
(Why'd you have to go and let it die)
Heart's gone cold, your hands were tied
(Why'd you have to go and let it die)
Why'd you have to go and let it die
(Why'd you have to go and let it die)

Why'd you have to go and let it die
Why'd you have to go and let it die
In too deep and out of time
Why'd you have to go and let it die

Do you ever think of me
You're so considerate
Did you ever think of me
Oh, so considerate

In too deep and lost in time
Why'd you have to go and let it die
Beautiful veins and bloodshot eyes
Why'd you have to go and let it die
Heart's gone cold and hands are tied
Why'd you have to go and let it die
Why'd you have to go and let it die

Do you ever think of me
You're so considerate
Did you ever think of me
Oh, so considerate

In too deep and lost in time
Why'd you have to go and let it die
Beautiful veins and bloodshot eyes
Why'd you have to go and let it die
Heart's gone cold and hands are tied
Why'd you have to go and let it die
Why'd you have to go and let this die
Why'd you have to go and let this die
Why'd you have to go and let this die
Why'd you have to go and let this die
Why'd you have to go and let it die
