

Foo Fighters, Lonely As You

What would I do
Lonely as you
Pleasure or pain
I can't choose
What would I do
Lonely as you
Pleasure or pain
I can't choose
Wake up
You're dreaming
I can't stand your screaming
Drowning out these prayers
Just some words without meaning
Spare all the breaching
My secrets worth keeping
No one understands like I do
Keep out of reach
I'm your leading deletion
Hide behind these masks
Though they still see right through them
Every now and then
You're down and out my friend
Down and out again [x3]
But I'm down with you
One more time for the last time
One more time for release
One more time for the last time
Everyone wants to believe
Blame it on you, thought these years I've been losing
Blame it on the past, it's the last place I know you
Blame all the children, they're raging and ruined
Blame it on the black and the blue
Every now and then
You're down and out my friend
Down and out again [x3]
But I'm down with you
One more time for the last time
One more time for release
One more time for the last time
Everyone wants to believe
Every now and then
You're down and out my friend
Down and out again [x3]
But I'm down with you
One more time for the last time
One more time for release
One more time for the last time
Everyone wants to believe
One more time for the last time
One more time for release
One more time for the last time
Everyone wants to believe
One more time for the last time
One more time for release
One more time for the very last time
Everyone wants to believe, all right
