

Foo Fighters, Over And Out

Restless little one, comfortable and warm
Let me fall apart, crippled in your arms
Chase me through the dark. Ready, on your mark
First to reach the start wins a broken heart,
One that broke apart,
Shattered from the start

Are you there?
Do you read me?
Are you there?
I don't feel you any more

Cages and alarms, keeping us from harm
I will be the guard, hope to rest upon
Could I be the one to break a will so strong?
Pray it won't be long til your will is gone,
An everything is done,
Nothing left at all

Are you there?
Do you read me?
Are you there?
I don't feel you anymore
Are you there?
Will you give in?
Are you there?
If I give out ooh, ooh, ooh
Over and out ooh, ooh, ooh

Cages and alarms, keeping us from harm
I will be the guard, hope to rest upon
til everything is done,
Nothing left at all

Are you there?
Do you read me?
Are you there?
I don't feel you any more

Are you there?
Will you give in?
Are you there?
If I give out
