Foo Fighters, Rescued

18.04.2023r. Utwór Rescued to nowy singiel grupy Foo Fighters.

It came in a flash It came out of nowhere It happened so fast And then it was over

Are you thinking what I'm thinking? Is this happening now? Are you feeling what I'm feeling? This is happening now

We're all free to some degree To dance under the lights I'm just waiting to be rescued Bring me back to life Kings and queens and in-betweens We all deserve the right I'm just waiting to be rescued I'm just waiting to be rescued We're all just waiting to be rescued tonight I fell in a trap My heart's getting colder It's coming on fast It's over my shoulder

Are you thinking what I'm thinking? Is this happening now? Are you feeling what I'm feeling? This is happening now

We're all free to some degree To dance under the lights I'm just waiting to be rescued Bring me back to life Kings and queens and in-betweens We all deserve the right I'm just waiting to be rescued I'm just waiting to be rescued We're all just waiting to be rescued tonight To be rescued tonight Rescue me tonight
